THE HIWASSEAN

These students published the first edition of the college annual, THE HIWASSEAN, which has been produced in several years. It was purely a student undertaking and they assumed the full responsibility of directing the affairs of this publication. Most of the students had actual experience in working on their high school annual staffs and therefore contributed greatly to the success of the annual.

THE ATHLETICS

COACH DON B. SPARGO

ASSISTANT COACH EDWARD YOUELL

PIGSKIN PRATTLE

The Hiwassee Tigers returned to formal gridiron wars this year with a season of reasonable success. With head coach Don Spargo and his assistant, Edward Youell, at the helm the Tigers copped 4, lost 4, and tied 1.

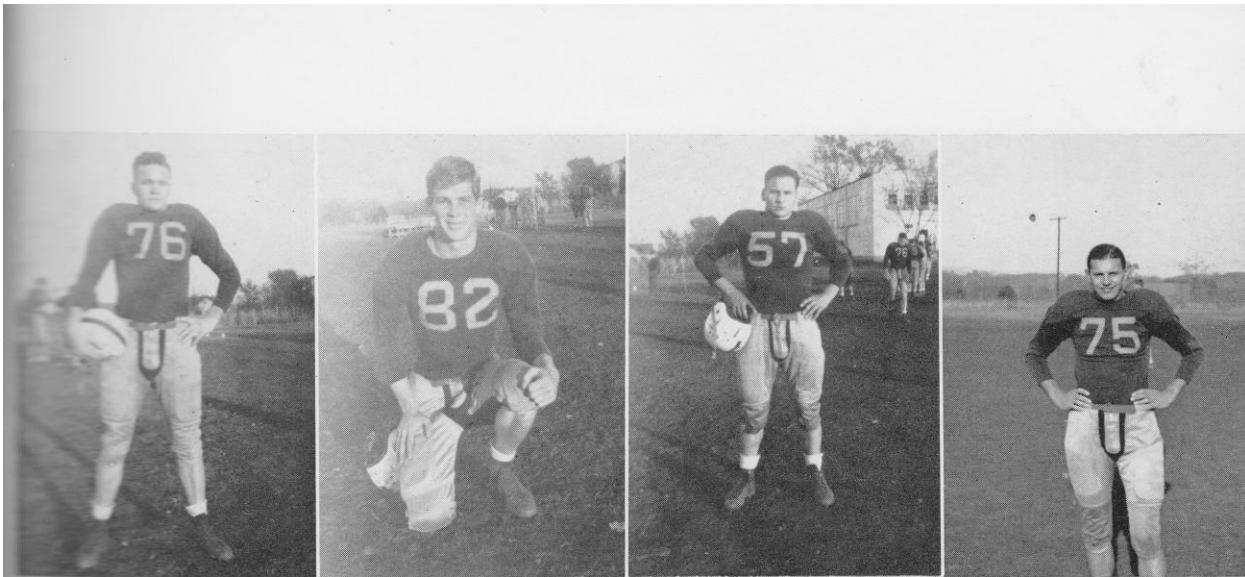

They started the season by losing to the undefeated Maryville Highlanders, 0-33. Hiwassee outplayed the favored Scots throughout the first half but succumbed to superior forces in the latter part of the game.

Jumping back after this crushing defeat the Tigers beat Mars Hill 12-6, in a thriller that saw Joe Sherlin in the starring role by virtue of a last-minute 65 yard touchdown run.

The Norman Bears were the next foe to fall before the Hiwassee eleven. They were defeated by a 13-7 count which saw Jim Fletcher in the leading role.

A trip to Western Carolina Teachers College proved a costly one as the Tigers were toppled by 0-26 in a closer game than the score indicates.

Victory was Hiwassee's again as they triumphed over Brevard, 13-6. This was indeed an offensive game which the home club dominated after the initial period.

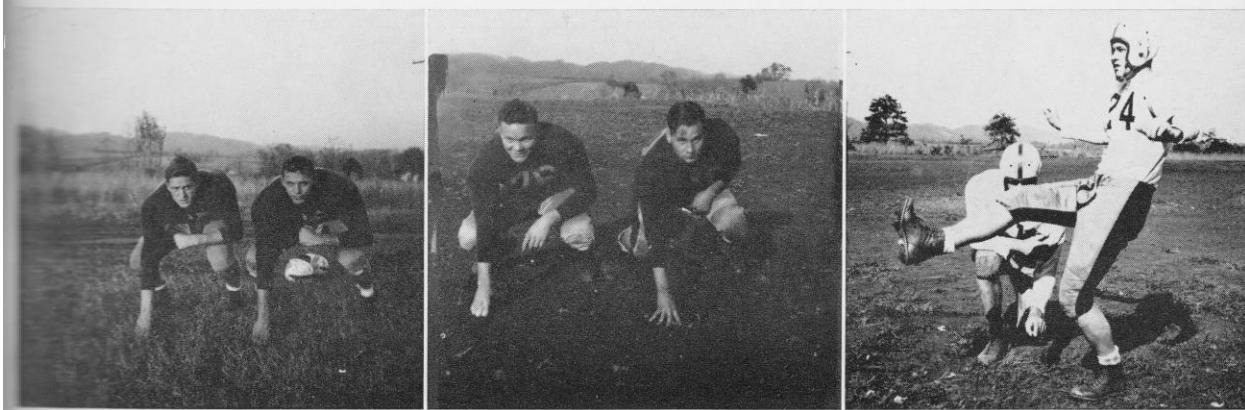

Engaging Coach Spargo's alma mater, Tusculum, a disheartening fate was in store as the Tigers lost in a muddy battle, 0-8.

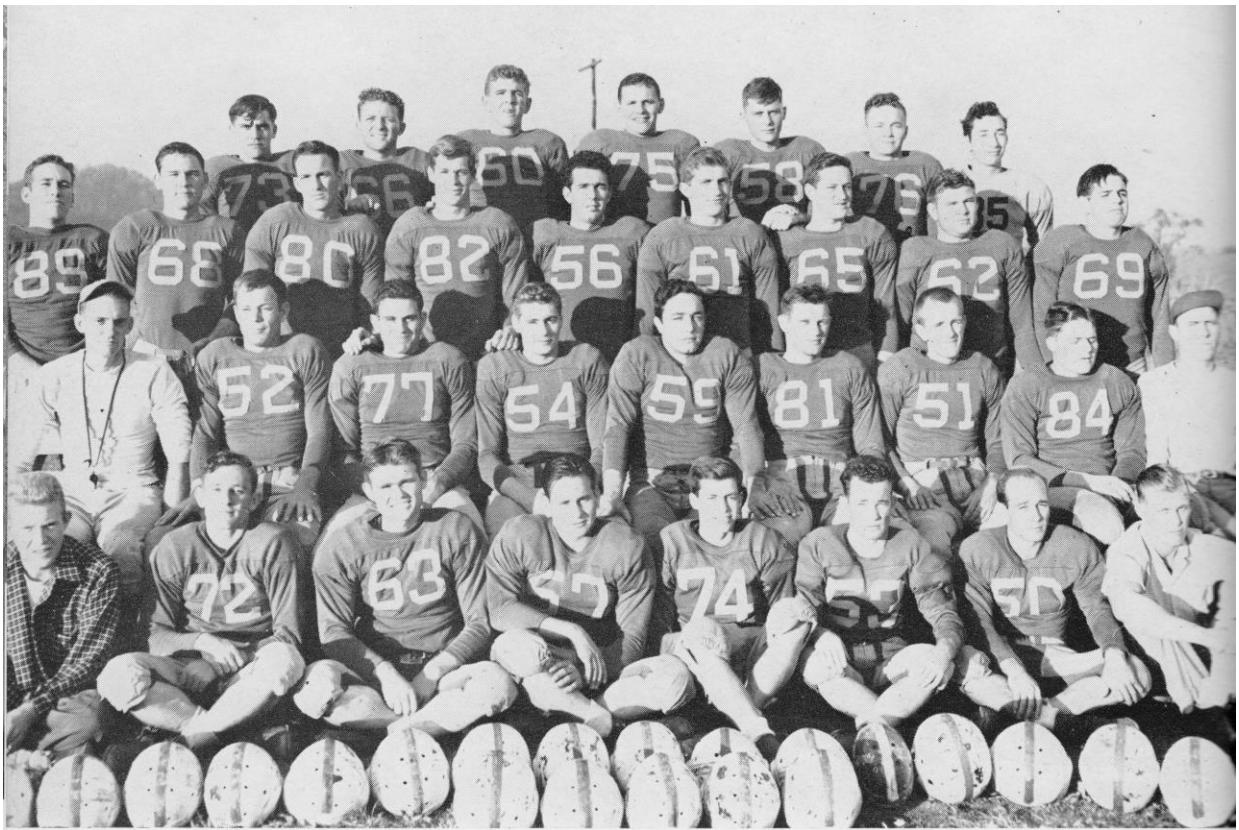

Invading Georgia, the Red and Gold-clad gridmen went on a scoring spree against Middle Georgia winning, 33-7.

Playing their best game of the season before a capacity Homecoming throng, Hiwassee fought the powerful South Georgia eleven to a standstill, tying them, 6-6. This game saw every Tiger in a starring role with Andy Anderson scoring the game-tying touchdown.

The climax of the season was the game with those Bulldogs of Tennessee Wesleyan. In one of the most bitterly-fought games of this rivalry, Tennessee Wesleyan managed to push over two touchdowns in the last quarter to win 14-0. It was a hard one to lose as those fighting Tigers had matched the Bulldogs yard for yard up to that fatal period.

THE TIGERETTES

The Tigerettes are still looking forward to their first victory. Although handicapped by height and inexperience they always display a never-say-die spirit.

The Hiwassee lassies' first opponent was the top-notch Pepsi-Cola sextet from Knoxville. The Tigerettes were never in the lead and lost, 17-45.

Hiwassee played the Pepsi-Colas in a return game at Maryville on an Infantile Paralysis program. Although they gave the Knoxville girls a closer game they lost again by a large margin, 12-39.

Playing their first college aggregation the Tigerettes succumbed to the fast Martin College team, 15-46. The girls from down in Pulaski, Tennessee gave the home fans a real exhibition of passing and floorwork. As usual Hiwassee was led by Christine Curtis. She always accounts for the majority of the points accumulated by the Tigerettes.

Meeting their main foe, the Tennessee Wesleyan lassies, defeat was Hiwassee's again as they were thoroughly trounced, 15-49.

The Hiwassee girls are to be praised for their game spirit and the way they take defeat in their stride and always come back for more. They are on the court because they love the game and wholesome competition. All Hiwasseans are hoping that these fighting Tiglettes will be rewarded for their efforts in games to come.

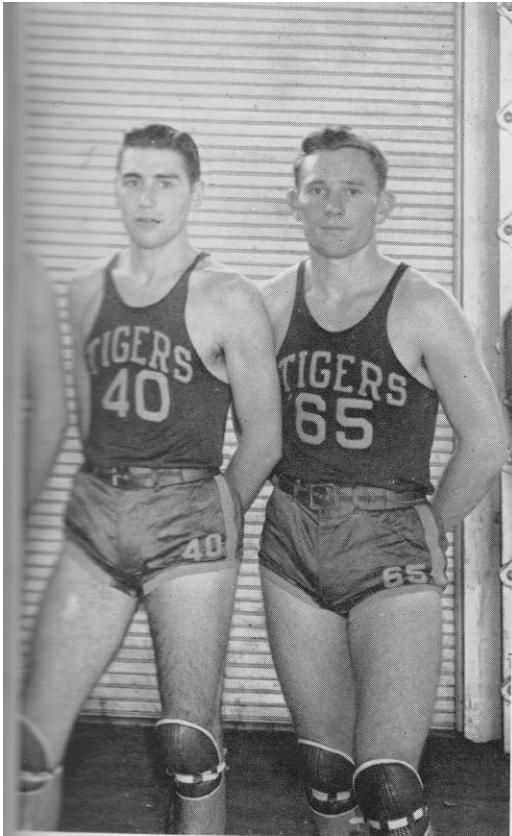

T I G E R T A L E S . . .

Hiwassee's fighting Tigers are at the present in the midst of the basketball season. After starting slowly, as expected, the Tigers showed steady improvement and are now striving to reach the .500 bracket. Facing their toughest opposition Hiwassee has now lost 3 straight but having shown that they have the ability to win, better results are anticipated.

After losing to Maryville, 34-49, Mars Hill, 36-41, and LMU, 28-61, the Tigers got in the victory column with a triumph over Johnson Bible College, 39-21. Hi-wassee hit her stride on a road trip into Georgia. Engaging highly-favored Oglethorpe University, the Tigers led the Petrels throughout most of the game only to lose in the latter stages, 38-44. But the Red and Gold clads rebounded to overwhelm Young Harris, 83-30. They next encountered Martin College at home, winning 47-35.

The Tigers displayed fine form and encouraged the home fans. The Tennessee Wesleyan Bulldogs were met after Tusculum had toppled Hiwassee, 46-61, in a game that saw the boys from Hiwassee off to a 19-7 lead and continue to lead until the last quarter when TWC forged ahead to win, 47-42. It was a hard one to lose as all games are when they are lost to TWC. East Tennessee State was the next foe and the Tigers were destined to lose again, this time by the score of 47-67.

With several games yet to play Hiwassee's Tigers are expected to continue their sterling brand of ball and thus add more victories to their list. The boys are anticipating an opportunity to enter the Southeastern Conference of Junior Colleges' Tournament to be held in the latter part of the season at Macon, Georgia.
